

bright* awarded Huish Episcopi contract....

01/2/10

bright* is pleased to announce our selection as stage technical contractor for Huish Episcopi School's new 6th Form Education Centre which is due for completion in August 2010.

bright* has been involved with Huish Episcopi for a number of years, supplying hire equipment to the drama department for their annual productions. For the Autumn term the school will have a new resource to rival the professional arts centres and theatres in the local area, with a new-build multipurpose theatre space designed to cope with a wide range of drama, performing arts and community projects.

"We are delighted to be involved with this project" comments Managing Director Jason Larcombe. "We have had a long relationship with the school and have supplied both equipment and services to assist them in building the quality and diversity of their performing arts programme. This new build will offer fantastic resources of a professional standard and not just benefit the school, but offer the wider community as resource for drama and cinema"

bright* will supply a complete technical installation service; including a lighting system comprising of both conventional and the latest LED technology, a theatrical and conference sound solution as well as draping to transform the space to cope with a range of different production styles and activities, and a permanent audio visual solution for teaching and performance use. The current build is on schedule and bright* are due to commence the fit-out during the August summer holiday period.

bright* offers a complete sales and installation service for a wide range of educational projects. Our approach aims to introduce the latest technologies and design principles into the education environment, with focus on professional products and long term solutions that are flexible and easy to use by students and practitioners alike. We take time to listen carefully to the needs of our clients and develop solutions in tune with their needs, with a passion for perfection!
